

YAMINI NABAR

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

BLACKROCK

Institutional Sales Analyst (Pensions East)

Aug. 2014 – Present

- Develop and maintain relationships with public and corporate pension plans with over $2 billion in assets
- Analyze retirement trends and security, capital market, and economic data to assist in development of customized strategies that meet client needs in regard to liquidity, maturity, and funded status
- Engage daily with clients and prospects to discuss asset allocation decisions and current and prospective investments

Institutional Sales Intern (Pensions East & Defined Contribution)

May – Aug. 2013

- Coordinated sales pitches and existing mandate reviews through collaboration with multiple stakeholders, including internal strategy and operations teams
- Analyzed holdings of the 200 largest U.S. 401(k) plans to identify prospective opportunities for BlackRock target-date and fixed income funds

MOODY'S CORPORATION

Jun. – Aug. 2012

Corporate Finance Intern (Leveraged Finance Group)

- Created 2011 – 2012 LBO financing database and analyzed trends in leverage, equity contributed, ratings changes, and LBO types to determine prevalence and implications of secondary buyout risk for creditors
- Evaluated relationships between exit strategies, refinancings, acquisitions, dividend recapitalizations, initial deal amounts, and ratings of 2004 – 2007 LBOs of 14 largest U.S. private equity firms

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Sept. 2010 – May 2014

B.A. Economics and Political Science, minor in Mathematics (summa cum laude)

- Honors: Dean's List, Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science Honors Society, Omicron Delta Epsilon International Honor Society in Economics
- Activities: Wharton International Business Review, Wharton Politics and Business Association, Green Acorn Eco-Consulting, Penn Student Government, The Daily Pennsylvanian

THE PINGRY SCHOOL

Sept. 2006 – Jun. 2010

High School Diploma (Valedictorian, Cum Laude Society, A.P. National Scholar)

ACTIVITIES

PENN FOOD RECOVERY PROGRAM

Sept. 2013 – May 2014

- Collaborated with Penn students and faculty, dining services, food providers, and external experts to research, develop, and present a proposal for implementing a campus-wide food recovery program to deliver unconsumed dining hall food daily to local hunger relief agencies
- Penn administration began implementing recommended program in Fall 2014 with plans to expand in coming years

PENN ALUMNI INTERVIEW PROGRAM

Sept. 2014 – Present

- Interview and recommend prospective students for admission to the University of Pennsylvania for early decision and regular admission cycles

SKILLS & INTERESTS

Skills: Microsoft Office, R, Stata

Certifications: FINRA Series 7 and 63 Licenses, Level I Candidate in the CFA Program

Interests: Impact investing, food justice, creative writing, international travel, tennis
